INSPIRING BELFAST

Welcome

TO EASTSIDE ARTS FESTIVAL 2016

This year the Arts Council confirmed the position of EastSide Arts as one of our core funded clients. This is a measure of how much the organisation and its festivals have achieved in a few short years.

EastSide Arts is helping to expand the provision of excellent and accessible arts across the city, reaching out to people and communities who might not otherwise have such opportunities to engage with the arts. Its signature festival, the EastSide Arts Festival, has established itself as a key player in the creative, social and economic regeneration and reputation of the area. It is, deservedly, one of the most popular highlights of a very successful development strategy for the arts in east Belfast.

Roisin McDonough
Chief Executive, Arts Council of Northern Ireland

It's been an exciting and inspiring few months preparing the programme for this year's festival as it offers a unique opportunity to showcase the brilliant and diverse artistic talent that lies within East Belfast.

We have had the pleasure of working with artists, venues, businesses and community organisations to present this talent in a way that we hope will encourage people to visit EastSide from across Belfast and beyond. We hope that the festival will inspire people to see EastSide as a community that is full of creativity, colour and, above all, one that is on a journey of renewal.

We would like to thank our principal funder, Arts Council of Northern Ireland, principal sponsor Tourism NI and funders Belfast City Council, Department of Communities and The Executive Office for their vital continuing support. Sincere thanks also to our sponsors Hewitt & Gilpin, British Council, Translink, John Dory's, Bass, Fonacab and McCadden for their brilliant support and enthusiasm in being a part of this year's EastSide Arts and Woodstock festivals.

Rachel Kennedy
Manager, EastSide Arts

NO SURRENDER

by Robert Harbinson
Adapted and read by Sam McCready

DATE WEDNESDAY 10 AUGUST
TIME 8PM
VENUE EAST BELFAST NETWORK CENTRE
PRICE £5
TICKETS WWW.EASTSIDEARTS.NET
TEL: 028 9024 6609

Robert Harbinson is one of Ulster's finest writers. Born in Dee Street on the Newtownards Road, No Surrender, his account of growing up in Belfast during the Depression and the build-up to the Second World War, is a masterpiece, by turns earthy, lyrical, full of pathos, and very funny. Praised by the national press when it was published by Faber & Faber in 1960, this adaptation by Sam McCready, veteran Ulster writer and actor, introduces the work of this gifted Ulster writer to a contemporary audience.

The Prodder

by Tina Noonan

DATE WEDNESDAY 10 AUGUST
TIME 8PM
VENUE WELDERS SOCIAL CLUB
PRICE £8
TICKETS WWW.EASTSIDEARTS.NET
TEL: 028 9024 6609

The Prodder is a story of the writer's Grand Uncle Johnny, a Catholic Irishman who fought at The Somme, woke up in a morgue and found his right leg amputated below the knee.

We meet him as an old man in an Irish country pub in 1964. This one-act play highlights the plight of the Irish men who fought in WW1, endured its horrors and survived, returning to a new and divided Ireland where they never spoke of their experiences. Except Johnny - the time has finally come for him to tell his tale and reclaim his past.

PINTSIZED CABARET

DATE THURSDAY 11 AUGUST
TIME 8PM
VENUE BOUNDARY COOPERATIVE BREWERY
PRICE £10.50
TICKETS WWW.EASTSIDEARTS.NET
 TEL: 028 9024 6609

PintSized Cabaret will feature a great selection of short scenes using the unique Boundary Brewery as the performance venue and source of inspiration. Audiences will be getting a flavour of some of the famous bits of poetry and prose that have focussed on drink and craic, with a nod to the pubs of East Belfast. With a selection of Boundary beers to try, it's sure to set you up for a great night.

If you've ever been unemployed, studying a humanities degree, or sick, you've played Murder She Got Wrote Off - that is, watching Murder She Wrote while drinking.

Now you can recreate that experience with friends and family, as The Cabot Cove Players recreate a classic episode of the greatest amateur sleuth show ever written. It's a live drinking game, so it's handy that there's a bar. Props, costumes, scripts... all the trappings of legitimate theatre, plus professional actors doing what they do best: drinking on the job. Well, it worked for Tom Bosley.

Audience fancy dress is encouraged.

PRICE	£10.50
TICKETS	WWW.EASTSIDEARTS.NET TEL: 028 9024 6609

During the First World War, many soldiers wrote to their families back home in Ulster sharing harrowing accounts not only of the appalling conditions they were fighting under but also the bravery of their fellow soldiers. Major poets, among them, Wilfred Owen and Siegfried Sassoon, have written powerful descriptions of the horrors of the battlefield, while contemporary Ulster poets like Michael Longley have also reflected on the event. To mark the anniversary of the Battle of the Somme, local actors Sam and Joan McCready, in company with the Brass Quintet from the Ulster Orchestra, will present a fascinating selection of these poems and letters.

Keith Donald is a renowned saxophone and clarinet player who has played with some of the biggest names in Irish music, including Van Morrison and Christy Moore. In this one-man show Keith tells the story of his professional life as he recounts the highs and lows of his six-decade long career, half of which was spent under the shadow of alcoholism. It is an insight into the life of a musician, from pit orchestra gigs to all the way through to sold out stadium tours; an inspirational story of addiction and recovery, complete with both laughter and lessons.

KAZ HAWKINS BAND

DATE THURSDAY 18 AUGUST

TIME 8PM

VENUE PARK AVENUE HOTEL

PRICE £15

TICKETS WWW.EASTSIDEARTS.NET

TEL: 028 9024 6609

East Belfast's multi-award-winning Kaz Hawkins is Northern Ireland's very own blues and soul darling. Her high energy, original shows, great style and ability to closely connect with her audience, contribute to make Kaz one of the most popular blues artists playing in the UK and Ireland today.

Off the back of winning a British Blues Award and Pure M Award in 2015 Kaz focussed on playing as a band rather than a solo artist and the Kaz Hawkins Band released a new album, Feelin' Good in May 2016. Expect to hear new songs with Kaz's unique take on the blues she loves so much.

ANÚNA

DATE FRIDAY 19 AUGUST

TIME 8PM

VENUE ST. PATRICK'S CHURCH BALLYMACARRETT

PRICE £21.50

TICKETS WWW.EASTSIDEARTS.NET TEL: 028 9024 6609

From the chants of medieval monks to the words of the great modern poets, an Anúna concert is a uniquely beautiful experience that combines atmospheric costumes, candles and movement into a haunting sonic tapestry.

The performance will feature a span of material from Anúna's varied and eclectic repertoire, including songs from the tradition, the medieval era and works composed around the writings of the great Irish poets. Also featured will be a number of pieces from the latest release by the group, Revelation.

"Using crystal-clear and thunderous sounds, playing with shadows and light, the ensemble creates an atmosphere of fervent richness" Le Monde.

PRICE £18
TICKETS WWW.EASTSIDEARTS.NET
 TEL: 028 9024 6609
AGE 16+

Tim McGarry is back with a brand new stand-up show about our history. And because of the year that's in it, can only be the 1916 Easter Rising and the Battle of the Somme.

In 2016 we have be inundated with worthy and serious dramas and documentaries about the meaning of 1916. There has been much chin stroking and nodding of heads. Tim McGarry doesn't want that. He wants to tell you jokes. Expect myths to be exploded and sacred cows to be slaughtered but above all expect laughs. And who knows we might accidentally learn something.

Somewhere in London a musician carries the keys to the musical kingdom. In his technicolor sonic scope are all kinds of sounds, from rock to country to soul to pop. Nothing is off limits, as long as it has a groove and goodness based in reality. The musician has been performing for 40 years, but is as fresh today as the first time he stepped on stage. There are no tricks or shortcuts here. Far from it. His songs are as solid as the earth, yet carry no lingering hype or heaviness. The musician is Nick Lowe, the headmaster of British rock.

THE BRIGID O'NEILL TRIO

DATE TUESDAY 16 AUGUST

Just back from playing the Bluebird Cafe and a series of other gigs in Nashville, Co. Down songwriter Brigid O'Neill has followed her critically acclaimed EP Arrivals and Departures with a new single, Don't Make Me Go to Town. Brigid is steadily developing a loyal audience with her blend of folk and country, thanks to well-received concerts and festival appearances.

RONNIE GREER & FRIENDS

DATE THURSDAY 18 AUGUST

One of the justifiable legends of the Northern Ireland music scene, Ronnie Greer is also one of its favourite performers. A superb blues and jazz guitarist, he has graced some of the finest blues bands in the country and shared the stage with some of the biggest names in the business. For this festival club setting, he'll be in trio mode – expect some Chicago blues with the occasional jazz curve.

LOS DRAMATICOS

DATE SATURDAY 20 AUGUST

An international flavour for the festival club with flamenco guitar duo Los Dramaticos. Paddy and Victor have played music all their life. Hailing from Northern Ireland and Chile respectively, their eclectic musical past incursions include classical and blues piano, French Chanson, music for the theatre, Argentinian Tango and Ugandan Afropop. The duo will serve us some lush instrumental music for the evening, and are one of the city's most treasured live duos.

HIGHLIGHTS AT HOME

This year we're delighted to announce that some of our key contributors are giving their time to perform intimate taster shows in nursing homes, residential care facilities and fold homes throughout East Belfast. Staff, residents and their families will participate in the EastSide Arts Festival without even leaving home.

A massive thank you to all the performers who've volunteered their time to make these sessions happen; Kaz Hawkins, Sam McCready, Anthony Toner, Ronnie Greer and Boundary Brewing. We would also like to thank the residential care facilities who've been such enthusiastic hosts; Sydenham Court, Mullan Mews, Dean Crooks, Inverary Fold, Loolpand Fold and Brae Valley Care Home. Watch this space for photos and updates on this exciting pilot as it rolls out throughout the festival. Supported by EastSide Arts.
